SATURDAY NIGHT'S FIRE.

Shortly after 6 o'clock, on Saturday evening, a fire broke out in the tinshop of Mr. George W. Miller, on Elks Place, and spread to the shoe shop of Ben Spencer, colored, and thence to the rear part of the building used as a warehouse by Mr. C. G. Marshall, the Broadway street dealer in wagons, &c.

There was some delay in the department reaching the scene, caused by the fractious conduct of one of the horses attached to the ladder wagon.

The flames spread rapidly and soon the house in which it originated was destroyed, with all its contents. The flames then attacked the frame house next door, which is the property of Mr. Geo. L. Hannen, and is used as a boarding house by Mrs. Nelson.

The house itself was not very badly damaged, but the furniture and fixtures of Mrs. Nelson were pretty seriously injured, with no insurance.

The fire was in a locality that, if it had occurred late at night, might have proved much more serious.

The department worked successfully after reaching the scene and soon had the flames under control.

Mr. Miller had a lot of piping, lum-bers, &c., as well as a fine lot of tools, which were all destroyed. Loss $500, with no insurance.

Ben Spencer lost everything he had.
Probably $150 will cover it all.

Mr. C. G. Marshall had quite a lot of wagons and other vehicles in the warehouse. His loss will amount to some $2,000, with $1,500 insurance.

Taken altogether, the escape from a big conflagration was a very lucky one.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the stomach, etc.

A weak stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak stomach nerves or weak heart nerves.
Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this sample trial. Sold by Capitol Pharmacy.

RESIGNED—APPOINTED.

has taken charge of the business.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, of Ottusville, a son—Raymond.

The death of Rev. J. W. Shaw took place at his residence, near Ottus-ville, on Tuesday, September 3, at 12 o'clock. He leaves a wife, father and two sisters, and a host of friends to mourn his untimely death. His health had been failing for the last three years, but took a serious turn within the last month. He suffered greatly.
In his death the country has lost one of her most faithful Christians and best preachers. Many heartfelt sympathies are shown toward Sister Shaw and the bereaved ones.

Miss Florence Woodside has purchased a new organ. Bye and bye we will have another organist.

COLORED BOY FROM LOUISVILLE DROWNED.

Two colored youths, whose home was in Louisville (who had been at work on the Highland Railroad) started home in skiff, by way of the Kentucky river, on Tuesday afternoon. When they reached the look, in place of going through the gates, they attempted to go over the dam. One of the boys became scared and jumped out on the dam and waded to safety. The other, whose name was Jones, went over the dam in the boat, which shipped a good deal of water.
After the youth had about reached safety he became frightened and demoralized at the waves and jumped from the boat into very deep water and was drowned.

The body was recovered an hour or so later and turned over to Coroner Graham.

An inquest was held on Wednesday and a verdict returned in accord with the facts.

was also a low price.
